

Sarah Jerrom - Biography

Sarah Jerrom is a vocalist, composer and arranger specializing in jazz and creative/experimental music. She has composed and arranged instrumental and vocal music for various projects, most recently including her own nine-piece chamber jazz group, "The Yeats Project". Featuring Sarah's compositions and arrangements set to the poetry of W.B. Yeats, "The Yeats Project" is Sarah's second full-length album, following up on her critically acclaimed 2007 debut album, "Illuminations". A graduate of the University of Toronto's jazz performance program, Sarah performs frequently in Toronto and the Niagara Region. Sarah is also a passionate music educator and private instructor.

www.sarahjerrom.com